More, Better and Lovelier—the Splendid New Stocks Are Opening

How to Simplify Your Cooking? How to Cook the Food Better? How to Lower Cost of Cooking?

You'll Learn How By Attending the Lectures at Masonic Auditorium Given By Miss Hanko

Beginning yesterday and continuing until March 3rd, these lectures are conducted under the auspices of the Telegram Cooking School.

The demonstrator will give a series of Educational lectures in the Masonic hall, followed by practical demonstrations in cooking, using pure food products exclusively. In the process of demonstrating fireless cooking, the demonstrator will cook in the Duplex Fireless Stove, showing how to simplify the process of cooking, how to cook the food better and how to lower the cost of cooking. Past experience proves that women always take particular interest in this feature of her work.

Doubtless you will take advantage of the present opportunity to learn something by attending these lectures.

The Duplex Fireless stoves are to be had in the House furnishing goods store at prices ranging between $10.50 and $25.00, where a further demonstration will be made of the superiority of the Duplex over any other fireless cooker.

Aluminum Cooking Utensils That Make Housekeeping a Delight

Bright, clean, healthful—no cracking or chipping—light in weight—practically indestructible.

See the pans that makes the wonderful omelet, or pans the steak, simply turn over the whole pan; nothing lost, and burning almost impossible. See the fine double boiler, the bright tea kettles and skillets, and the best cold water percolators you ever used. That gives the coffee a better taste.

You will never be happy about your kitchen until every cooking utensil is aluminum. Buy now before the war takes all the aluminum, as it threatens to do.

Opening Up the New Dress Trimmings

Fascinating colored bands and flouncings, all of these are in a little collection just lately come.

Spangle and bead trimming on net and chiffon, they are done in black and the most artistic colors in a very new and striking effect.

Embroidery flouncings, colored embroidery on white net, very beautiful things, 18 inches wide, $5.00 a yard; 27 inches wide, $7.00.

It is a great season for beads and spangles, as you will see by the new flouncings and bands. There are very beautiful, indeed, with their gleaming flowers and designs, often worked out in color on a sparkling black background.

'Wonderfully Fine and Most Reasonable'

Said one lady, which seems to voice the sentiment of the many visitors now viewing the new spring millinery.

We are making rapid strides in this department by giving wonderfully fine hats at the most reasonable prices. You may test this for yourself.

Women are Asking For Washable Gloves

And here is a brand new two-clasp pique sewn kid glove that will really wash. They are in white only, with black embroidery. Price $1.50.

Val Laces-A Sale, Insertions, 3c Yd.

These are the laces we would sell from 5c to 25c a yard and in their various widths, but the edges have been sold and there remains insertions only, of which we have 3864 yards, or rather did have at inventory time February 1.

Rose O'Neill's Kewpie Dolls Are Here This Week

Every little girl in town has heard of Rose O'Neill and many of them have seen her and her Kewpie dolls in the movies.

They will drive away the blues of the older folk and make merry the hearts of the children. A great many Kewpie's just arrived, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Kewpie ornaments, 25c and 50c.

Hair Brushes That Bristle With Value

We need only mention the Ideal and Pearson's bristle brushes, selling at 98c, $1.19, $1.50, $2.00. Just try one. You will have none other.

Spotless in Junior and Senior sizes, 50c, $1.00.

Gold Shell Rings, actual values, 39c to 50c; guaranteed 3 years.

Some Women Prefer Them to Silk-Satteen Petticoats

After the present stocks of silk petticoats have gone and we are forced to pay the advance in all silks there will be no petticoats to sell under $5.00 worth its salt.

American genius have reached the perfected point in mercerizing cotton to where it looks and feels like silk. Four new styles recently unboxed. One has a knife pleated flounce with brocade inset panel, $1. Another marked $1.50 has a two-tier flounce with cluster knife pleats and ruffles. At $2 there are two more styles, one having a deep flounce with cluster tucks running around. Another, a gored flounce with corded ribbon ruffle.

All have elastic waist band, excepting the $1.00 grade.

Wonderful Copies Are These Suits, $14.50, $21.50, $25

Distinguished things, mostly one of a kind, but copies from Paris models. One navy blue serge, after Jenny, hangs perfectly straight from the shoulders and has chin-chin collar of white.

Another clever feature of this suit is, by adding a white kid belt it may be belted in to form a fitted, flaring hip style.

The same model is shown with two rows of white silk braid around the bottom of the coat. This model may be had in Copenhagen blue or English club check. Price, $25.

By actual count there are 85 other suits equally as good in style, each faithfully reproducing suits three to four times as much.

The salons of dress on the Second floor is the realization of a vision of a great service to our people. Every day is inspection day.

WELCOME.

We are not photographers, but through us we are enlarging new photographs to oval, convex shapes, size, 14x20 inches at 19c each. The same work would cost you regularly $3.00.

See station on main floor.

The Blouse Shop Receives Charming New Styles

Eight new styles just in. Three of them are the open mesh net lace with heavy Chinese embroidery in quaint oriental designs—price $3.85.

Two others are semi-tailored of wonderful crepe-de-chine; having a new collar opened high or low, and may be had in peach, flesh and white—price $3.85.

For five dollars are two lovely Pussy Willow Taffeta models with a vest front of Georgette crepe, high lustrous color tint and so on.

We wish to say that so far we are able to give the same high grade Silks as heretofore, no advance in price as yet, tho the market certainly does warrant it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Special Meeting.

Harrison Hive No. 984, Ladies of the Modern Maccabees, will hold a special meeting at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in Moose hall. All members are urged to be present as arrangements will be made for a series of socials in the near future.

Attractive Reception.

Shepherdess baskets in gold and white filled with fragrant spring flowers in Dresden effect with vases of spring blossoms and groupings of tall stately palms and ferns formed the floral decorations of the rooms at an attractive reception given by Mrs. John Koblegard and her daughter, Miss Lillie Koblegard, from 3 to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at their home on East Main street. Mrs. Koblegard and Miss Koblegard and their visiting guest, Mrs. William E. Turner, of Cumberland, Md., received the guests in the large eastern parlor.

A large low basket filled with jonquils, violets, hyacinths and tulips caught with a choux of blue taffeta ribbon adorned the table in the dining room. Mrs. Lewis M. Sutton presided and Mrs. Anson D. Parr poured coffee. Among the aides who assisted in serving the ices were Miss Virginia Snider, Miss Grace Haymaker, Miss Louise Davis, Miss Virginia Gaylord, Miss Rebecca and Mary Ruhl, Miss Genevieve Harrison. Assisting through the rooms were Mrs. Robert Morris and Mrs. William T. Wallis. Fruit punch was refreshingly served by Mrs. Clarence Parr.

On its roof have been pitched a number of tents where guests who prefer sleeping outdoors can do so.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. William E. Turner, of Cumberland, Md.; Mrs. Sprigg D. Camden, of Parkersburg; and Miss Melle Glass, of Columbus, O. The guest list included about 250 persons.

Press Criticisms.

Among the many press criticisms in regard to Mrs. Elsie Gundling-Duga, who will appear at the artist recital of the Masonic Music Club Saturday afternoon in the auditorium of the Masonic temple the Parkersburg Sentinel published: "Mrs. Elsie Gundling-Duga, of Wheeling, appeared in several vocal numbers. Many artists have come to Parkersburg heralded as great singers, but few of them have carried off the stage more genuine admiration than did Mrs. Duga. She possesses a voice of rare sweetness and splendid range and she sang with exquisite interpretation numbers which showed her artistic versatility. These were (a) 'Vissi D'arte' from Tosca, by Puccini; (b) 'A Little Blue Gray Dove' by Saar; (c) 'Melisande in the Woods' by Goetz; and (d) 'The Years at the Springs' by Beach, and a charming little selection, 'God Knoweth Best' in response to insistent encouragements.

The Erie Dispatch gave a very pleasing criticism of Mrs. Elsie Sanders

Walker in her piano renditions. Mrs. Walker created a most delightful impression. She played her first number, Schmitt's 'Nocturnette' in a delicate and easy manner, rising to the requisite firmness in the forte passages. In the Moszkowski 'Barcarolle' she displayed a flawless execution and the Chopin 'Rondo' was given with fire and vim and wonderfully clean technique.

To Give Reception.

In her home at Waldmore Mrs. Richard T. Lowndes will give a large reception from 4 to 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon having as her honor guest Mrs. Sprigg D. Camden, of Parkersburg.

Parsonage Wedding.

Jesse H. Gaspell and Miss Minnie Wagner were married at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church, South, the Rev. W. B. King, pastor of the church, officiating. Mrs. Gaspell is a daughter of John E. Wagner, a well known resident of this county. She is very popular in a wide circle of friends. Mr. Gaspell is also a resident of this county and is well known and popular.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Street and Motor Coats.

The rippe coat for spring is made in both cloth and silk. Belts are placed at the normal waist line, at slightly higher than normal or a few inches below the point. Some are short-waisted in the front and long-waisted in the back.

Many coats have high collars and button up to the throat. They are made so that they can be worn open or closed. Oblong sailor collars, draped collars, fuche effect collars, cape collars and simple notched collars are approved. The cape collar is made detachable, being fastened with clasps or with buttons. Sleeves are dressy, both in cut and by means of fancy cuffs. Motor coats are in plain colors, stripes, checks, plaids and mixtures.

FURNITURE On the Easy Payment Plan

We have just inaugurated a new credit system which will appeal to everyone who desires to purchase furniture on the installment plan. This system is adopted to accommodate the daily wage man, who is paid every week or two weeks, as well as the woman who receives a regular allowance. On purchases amounting to $15.00 or less, our terms will be

One Dollar Down and One Dollar Per Week

If the purchaser receives his wages every two weeks he may pay us $2.00 down and $2.00 every two weeks on this same amount. Special terms in this proportion will be made for purchases up to $30.00, but in each case we insist that the full time of payment shall not exceed fourteen weeks. Terms for larger amounts will be arranged at the store.
